HOT TAKE

Jake Arnold designs spaces for A-list clients like Katy Perry, Zendaya and John Legend. Here, he shares his latest design preferences and predictions.

ATMOSPHERE YOU LIKE TO CREATE: Comforting and warm.

RECENT INSPIRATION: A visit to Pierre Yovanovitch's castle in Provence this summer was an incredible experience. Every single room has its own personality.

ONE THING EVERY ROOM NEEDS:

Vintage lighting.

ON YOUR COFFEE TABLE: A rotating selection of design books, vintage objects and my favourite candle.

I'm currently burning the Replica scented candle in By the Fireplace by Maison Margiela.

INTO: Iron details and soft shades of pink.

OVER: All-beige interiors.

DESIGN IDEA YOU'RE EXCITED

TO TRY: Marquetry.

IF YOU COULD BUY ONLY ONE MORE

THING FOR YOUR HOME: A richly textured lounge chair, like the Rumford chair from my Crate and Barrel collection, in a gorgeous olive green velvet.

DESIGN TREND FOR THE YEAR AHEAD:

A return to a closed-concept home — people want their rooms to feel more like designated spaces. This kind of structure allows more creativity when designing.

"HOW ONE FEELS IN A SPACE IS JUST AS IMPORTANT
AS HOW IT LOOKS"

1. Rumford chair in Olive Green Velvet, $2,099. Crate and Barrel. 2. Replica scented candle in By the Fireplace by Maison Margiela, $78. Sephora.

NEW & NOTABLE

Into the Woods

THIS COOL LIGHTING COLLECTION COMES FROM FINNISH INTERIOR ARCHITECT AND DESIGNER ESA VESMANEN OF FINOM AND JAPANESE TEXTILE AND CLOTHING DESIGNER AKIRA MINAGAWA OF MINÄ PERHONEN. EVERY ORGANIC-SHAPED SHADE IS CONSTRUCTED BY HAND FROM THIN LAYERS OF FINNISH BIRCH. WHEN THE PENDANTS AND LAMPS ARE ILLUMINATED, TINY LASER-CUT HOLES LOOK LIKE SHINING STARS.

1. Pilvi/Cloud & Stars pendants, from $930 each. 2. Sieni/Mushroom table lamp, from $780. Both at Gaspard.
